this may keep immune cells from regenerating out of control.

Japan has raised its assessment of the risk of China's military buildup and maritime assertiveness, exacerbating the country's domestic problems, including labor instability.